

Codicil

I, Testator name rule of , declare this to be the Codicil number codicil to my will dated Date of existing will ('my will').My previous name was My previous address was .

1. I hereby revoke the gift of Old gift details made in Clausemy will to Relationship to Beneficiary*Name of beneficiary being revoked of .
2. I now give , free of Inheritance Tax, to Relationship to new benef rule*Name of new beneficiary of .
3. Except as hereby amended, in all other respects I confirm my will, as amended by the codicil identified above.

Name of witness: _____

Address: _____

Occupation: _____

Signature: _____

What to do with your codicil

This page explains how to prepare and sign your codicil. It also gives some advice on what to do with your codicil in the future. This section is not part of your codicil and you should separate it from the previous pages.

Once your codicil is complete, it should be printed on durable paper. Then, it is very important that you sign and witness your codicil in the correct way. Otherwise, it could become invalid. Please follow these instructions: